DETAILS

CIPS recommended study hours for this unit is 50 we would also suggest at least a further 70 for wider reading and revision and practice papers to get the most from this course – The course book is an essential reading guide but we would also recommend you make full use of the CIPS website for further knowledge and information sourcing

You should have already received your student manual and your reading list – if this is not the case would you please contact Judith.hay@educational-academy.co.uk and she will forward one to you immediately
